

Name: Christopher Moran
Call: 2007, Middle Temple
Inn and Education: 2007 Bar Vocational Course, Nottingham Law School
2006 Master of Jurisprudence (MJur)
2002 BA Politics with Management
Awards: The Sir Joseph Cantley Award, Middle Temple
Keble Award, Middle Temple

Family ,Housing Law and Personal Injury

Profile: Chris joined Chambers after practising at 1 Mitre Court Buildings in London for nearly 3 years where he remains a Door Tenant.

Family Law

Chris' Family work has involved disputes as to Residence, Contact, Non-Molestation and Ancillary Relief. Whilst at his previous Chambers he co-presented a CPD lecture on the Court of Protection, a lecture which he has repeated a number of times.

Housing Law

In relation to Housing Chris has represented Defendants and Local Authorities in Possession Proceedings, Committal Proceedings and has extensive experience of Service Charges. He is also involved in developing training programmes for Local Authority housing officers in the law and practice of a number of areas including Anti-Social Behaviour Orders. Chris regularly undertakes all aspects of Landlord and Tenant, including Possession claims and Disrepair cases.

Personal Injury

Chris will accept instructions in;

- Infant/Patient settlements
- Road traffic accidents
- Accidents at work
- Credit hire