

Name: Simon Reevell

Call: Called 1990

Inn and Education: Lincoln's Inn

Profile:

Civil: I have practiced in the field of civil litigation since 1990 and have a wide experience of a variety of areas of civil law including

Personal Injury: all aspects of PI practice for Claimants and Defendants including complex multiple injuries, injuries sustained aboard aircraft mid-flight, road traffic injuries, balloon flight injuries, infant settlement cases and fatal accident proceedings

Clinical Negligence: including multi-failure infant birth cases , cardio-vascular cases and failed diagnosis and inappropriate procedure cases

Specialist Tribunal Work: Including the Coroner's Court, the Care Quality Commission, Criminal Injuries Compensation Agency, the Army Board (in respect of AGAI and Redress of Complaint proceedings) and the Reserve Forces Appeal Tribunal

I have dealt with a number of high-profile cases as well as cases involving injuries of the upmost severity to children and members of the armed forces, cases involving psychiatric and psychological damage, allegations of care home negligence and cases involving the representation of members of the medical profession including before the Care Quality Commission.

Notable cases

Re: Brocklesby - £1million+ structured settlement case for infant who had life expectancy reduced to 20 years by negligence at birth.

Re: Burman - Advice regarding case, settlement and approval following onset of Elbs Palsy due to negligence at birth. Significant quantum awarded.

Re: Rossiter - Advice regarding case, settlement and approval following riding accident due to negligence of stables. Significant injury and scars.

Re: Cawood - Advice regarding case, settlement and approval following significant injury occasioned by child in RTA. Quantum £12,000.